

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY DEPARTMENT COMMUNITY EVENT & OUTREACH CALENDAR

The city of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department offers a variety of workshops, programs and activities designed to ensure equal opportunity for all Phoenix residents through education, enforcement and community involvement.

This calendar lists events that the public is invited to attend. All events are free unless noted by an asterisk (*) and some may require pre-registration. Events are subject to change. Check the EOD Web site, phoenix.gov/eod, for the most current version.

Please call 602-262-7716 to register or for more information.

PLAN TO ATTEND THESE EVENTS TO:

- Learn how to be certified as a minority-, woman- or small business owner and how to do business with the city
- Hear dynamic people telling their stories at the Faces of Diversity lecture series
- Develop business and community relationships
- Learn about fair housing and employment rights
- Attend programs that promote cultural awareness
- Increase awareness of issues facing women, minorities and people with disabilities
- Attend meetings of the Phoenix Human Relations Commission, Phoenix Women's Commission and the Phoenix Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues and their committees

To arrange disability accommodations or request the calendar in alternate format, call the Equal Opportunity Department at 602-262-7716/voice or 602-534-1557/TTY. More information at phoenix.gov/eod/.
