- This event features City of Phoenix Departments, Community Organizations and Area Agencies that provide a service and or program that contribute to the advancement of the Community
- The Back to School and Health Fair helps prepare families and their children for the upcoming school year
- One of the biggest components within the fair is the health section featuring free immunizations, health screenings as well as important information provided by area agencies. This year we will also feature the participation of the Community and Economic Development Departments “Workforce Connection Division” that will feature a Job Fair.
- The event will also feature information on nutrition, education, water safety, finance, plus other valuable resources needed in the community
- Youth will have the opportunity to participate in arts and crafts and receive free backpacks (to the first 1,000 children, grade school age, children must be present).
- All attendees are invited to enjoy free entertainment and a light lunch provided by the Latino Institute and it’s generous sponsors
- The community will also have the opportunity to participate and have their voices heard in the ending plenary. The plenary will consist of panel members who are experienced professionals, discussing the challenges affecting our community and how we can begin addressing them.
