Wednesday, Oct. 29, 2008

Phoenix College, John Paul Theatre
1202 W. Thomas Road

Women must take action to increase their earning power and enhance the development of their careers. This free event will provide a forum for women to learn about personal economic growth and development. Panelists will offer presentations on health and wellness, personal safety, financial planning and planning your education and career goals.

-  Daniel Herbst, dean of student services, Phoenix College
-  Rebecca S. Kennell, certified financial planner, Commonwealth Financial Network
-  Gail A. Andrews, certified financial planner, Commonwealth Financial Network
-  Smita Mulyil, registered dietitian, Maricopa Integrated Health System
-  Commander Jeri Williams, Phoenix Police Department

Panel moderator: Laura Franco French, executive projects manager, Arizona Office of Tourism

The event is sponsored by the Phoenix Women's Commission and the city of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department in partnership with Phoenix College.

A panel discussion will be from 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m. A book sale will be offered by Borders Books from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. A complimentary box lunch will be available for attendees.

Free parking is available at Phoenix College north parking lot. Seating is limited!
