

PHOENIX WOMEN'S COMMISSION
PRESENTS
A WOMEN'S ECONOMIC FORUM

“Women Talk: Money and More!”

10:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Oct. 28, 2009

Phoenix College, John Paul Theatre
1202 W. Thomas Road

Women need information to improve their earning power, career development and personal well-being. This free event will provide a forum for women to learn about personal and professional growth and development. Panelists will offer presentations on health and wellness, personal safety, debt management and planning your educational and financial goals.

- 💰 Daniel Herbst, interim vice president of student affairs and dean of students, Phoenix College
- 💰 Tisha Diffie, president, TMD Investment Strategies Inc.
- 💰 Joann Hauger, executive director, Community Housing Resources of Arizona
- 💰 Adrienne Udarbe, program director, Maternal and Child Health Nutrition Programs, AZDHS
- 💰 Assistant Chief Jeri Williams, Phoenix Police Department

Panel moderator: Laura Franco French, executive projects manager, Arizona Office of Tourism

The event is sponsored by the Phoenix Women's Commission and the city of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department in partnership with Phoenix College.

A panel discussion will be from 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m. A Resource Fair for women will offer information on financial aid for education, Neighborhood Stabilization Program homeownership assistance and more. Also domestic violence advocates will be available. A complimentary box lunch will be offered to attendees.

Free parking is available at Phoenix College north parking lot. Seating is limited!
