

PHOENIX WOMEN'S COMMISSION
PRESENTS
A WOMEN'S ECONOMIC FORUM

“Women Talk: Money and More!”

10:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.
Wednesday, Oct. 11, 2006
Phoenix College, John Paul Theatre
1202 W. Thomas Road

Women must take action to increase their earning power and enhance the development of their careers. This free event will provide a forum for women to learn about personal economic growth and development. Panelists will offer presentations on current civil rights issues impacting women, personal safety awareness, mental and physical health for the working mom, guiding students toward a life of connectedness, and defining retirement dreams and retiring to something rather than from something.

- 💰 Virginia Herrera-Gonzales, chief counsel
Arizona Attorney General's Office, Civil Rights Division
- 💰 Commander Jeri Williams, Phoenix Police Department
- 💰 Nina Mares, personal and career counselor, GateWay Community College
- 💰 Laura Wagner, platinum financial advisor, Ameriprise Financial Services Inc.

Panel moderator: Cristina K. Muñoz, community relations/business development manager, West & Southwest Business Units, Coca-Cola Enterprises Inc.

The event is sponsored by the Phoenix Women's Commission and the City of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department in partnership with Phoenix College and Ameriprise Financial Services Inc.

Panel discussion will be from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The commission in partnership with the National Association of Commissions for Women "Healthy Bones Program" will offer a free osteoporosis screening from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Lunch available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Free parking is available at Phoenix College north parking lot. Seating is limited!
For more information or reservations, call 602-261-8242/voice or 602-534-1557/TTY by Oct. 4.
For information on the Phoenix Women's Commission, visit phoenix.gov/phxwomen.

City of Phoenix