

REFERENCE POINTS

14 ORPHEUM THEATRE

203 W. Adams St., 602-534-5600

phoenix.gov/STAGES/orpheum.html

The Orpheum Theatre, built in an elaborate Spanish Baroque style in 1929, is the last historic theater in downtown Phoenix and was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1985. An $11.4 million restoration transformed the theater into a technically modern, but architecturally and historically preserved, 1,400-seat venue for performing arts and community and civic events.

15 PAPAJO PARK HOLE-IN-THE-ROCK

Galvin Parkway and Van Buren Street, 602-256-3220

phoenix.gov/parks/papago.html

This fabulous park, located on 1,200 acres of rolling desert hills and rugged mountains, features a golf course, museums, picnic areas, fishing lagoons (urban fishing license required), hiking trails and the Hole-In-The-Rock landmark.

16 THOMAS J. PAPPAS SCHOOL

355 N. Fifth Ave., 602-452-4750

www.tjppasschool.org

The Thomas J. Pappas School was founded in 1989. In 1997, the new Pappas School was built for children from Kindergarten through 5th grade. The school's mission is to develop within all students the leadership qualities to fulfill their roles as responsible citizens of a changing world and to provide enrichment opportunities to curtail homelessness.

17 PATRIOTS SQUARE PARK

Washington Street and Central Avenue, 602-262-4627

phoenix.gov/parks/patriots.html

Patriots Square Park features two-and-a-half acres of open space with grass, trees, benches and an outdoor performing arts stage. The park serves as a decorative "cover" for a large underground parking garage.

18 PHOENIX ART MUSEUM

Central Avenue and McDowell Road, 602-257-1222

www.phoenixart.org

The largest in the Southwest, the museum features about 16,000 art works in its collection of American, European, Asian, Latin American, Contemporary and Western American art and fashion design. Use the audio guide to create your own tour, visit the Museum Store and the Art Museum Café, and attend art classes, gallery talks and family programs.

19 PHOENIX MOUNTAINS PARK & RECREATION AREA

2701 E. Squaw Peak Lane, 602-262-7901

phoenix.gov/parks/phmntms.html

Piestewa Peak, part of the Phoenix Mountains Preserve, is one of the city's best-known landmarks. The park features a 1.2-mile trail to the peak's 2,608-foot summit. Dozens of miles of trails allow you to enjoy the glory of the Sonoran Desert in relative solitude.

20 PHOENIX ZOO

455 N. Galvin Parkway, 602-273-1341

www.phoenixzoo.org

The Phoenix Zoo, the nation's largest privately owned nonprofit zoological park, is home to more than 1,300 animals, including 200 endangered or threatened birds, mammals and reptiles from around the world. Each lives along one of four distinctive trails - the Arizona Trail, Africa Trail, Children's Trail and the Tropics Trail.

21 PUEBLO GRANDE MUSEUM & ARCHEOLOGICAL PARK

4619 E. Washington St., 602-495-0901

phoenix.gov/parks/pueblo.html

Pueblo Grande, the only National Historic Landmark in the city, includes a 1,500-year-old Hohokam culture ruins along an interpretive trail and an onsite museum with three exhibit galleries and a theater featuring exhibits of the Hohokam and other Southwest cultures.

22 SHERER ART CENTER & MUSEUM

5005 E. Camelback Road, 602-262-4727

phoenix.gov/parks/sherer.html

The Shemer Art Center and Museum is located in a historic home built in 1919. The range of exhibitions includes traditional and nontraditional works by Arizona artists. Fun and affordable visual art classes are offered year round by practicing artists.

23 SOUTH MOUNTAIN PARK

10919 S. Central Ave., 602-495-0222

phoenix.gov/parks/southmtn.html

South Mountain is the largest municipal park in the world. The 16,500-acre park is home to more than 300 specimens of plant life and a wide variety of fauna, including rabbits, foxes, coyotes, snakes, lizards and birds. The park features picnic areas, ramadas and hiking trails and is the home of the 10,907-square-foot South Mountain Environmental Education Center.

24 ST. MARY'S BASILICA

Third and Monroe streets, 602-354-2100

www.stmarysbasilica.org

Founded in 1881, St. Mary's is the oldest Catholic Church in Phoenix. Prior to Pope John Paul II's visit to Arizona in 1987, the Holy Father elevated St. Mary's to a Minor Basilica. Mass is held daily and tours are available. Experience Arizona's largest collection of historic stained glass windows.

25 SYMPHONY HALL

225 E. Adams St., 602-534-5600

phoenix.gov/stages/symphall.html

Symphony Hall is the cultural centerpiece of the Valley's vibrant arts community. The home of The Phoenix Symphony, Ballet Arizona and the Arizona Opera, Symphony Hall also hosts diverse events from touring Broadway shows to appearances by top musicians and performing artists.

26 TELEPHONE PIONEERS OF AMERICA PARK

1946 W. Morningside Drive

Adaptive Rec. Services 602-262-4543/Pool 602-495-2404

phoenix.gov/parks/telepark.html

Opened in 1988, Telephone Pioneers of America Park is the nation's first barrier-free park for physically challenged individuals. The $2.5 million facility features two big baseball fields, a therapeutic heated pool, wheelchair accessible playground equipment, handball, volleyball, tennis, basketball and shuffleboard.

27 TOVREA CASTLE & CARRARO CACTUS GARDEN

5041 E. Van Buren St., 602-262-6412

phoenix.gov/parks/tovrea.html

Tovrea Castle sits atop a cactus-covered hill like a giant tiered wedding cake. Built in the 1920's and sold shortly thereafter to cattle baron Edward Tovrea, the castle reflects the rustic elegance of 1900 Arizona. Owned by the city of Phoenix, the castle currently is under restoration and will be opened to the public on a limited basis upon completion.

28 US AIRWAYS CENTER

201 E. Jefferson St., 602-379-7800

www.usairwayscenter.com

As the home of the Phoenix Suns, the Arizona Rattlers arena (football team); the Phoenix Mercury; and the Phoenix Roadrunners, an East Coast Hockey League; the one million-sq-foot, 20,000-seat, multipurpose US Airways Center plays host to more than 200 diverse sports and entertainment events a year.

29 WESLEY BOLIN MEMORIAL PLAZA

1700 W. Washington St., 602-542-4541

Wesley Bolin Plaza covers two square blocks of the State Capitol grounds and is the site of 23 memorials commemorating Governor Bolin and other prominent Arizonans. On the eastern tip of the plaza rests the anchor of the USS Arizona, sunk during the Japanese raid on Pearl Harbor in 1941, as a memorial to the men who died aboard the battleship.

30 WRIGLEY MANSION

2501 E. Telawa Trail, 602-955-4079

www.wrigleymansionclub.com

Dominating the crest of a 100-foot hill is the elegant Wrigley Mansion. Completed in 1931, the mansion was built by chewing gum magnate William Wrigley Jr. as a 50th wedding anniversary present for his beloved wife, Ada. The mansion operates as a private club featuring world-class cuisine.