
PHOENIX OFFICE OF ARTS AND CULTURE
2019-2020 GRANT FUNDING AWARDS
Collaborative Communities: Festivals

1 Applicant: African Association of Arizona

Project Title: African Festival 2019

Project Description: Festival activities will include African cuisines, African crafts and curios, African music, African drummers, African dancers, African fashion, and storytelling/education.

Amount Recommended: $3,500

2 Applicant: Arab American Festival

Project Title: Arab American Festival

Project Description: Showcases our diversity of music, arts, and cultures

Amount Recommended: $3,150

3 Applicant: Arizona Matsuri

Project Title: Matsuri 2020

Project Description: Matsuri 2020 is a festival celebrating the arts, culture, and food of Japan.

Amount Recommended: $3,500

4 Applicant: Artlink, Inc.

Project Title: Art Detour 32

Project Description: Art Detour is an annual, multi-day festival in central Phoenix featuring open artist studios, galleries, art spaces, art friendly businesses, artist demos, symposiums, and performances.

Amount Recommended: $2,800

5 Applicant: Cultural Coalition

Project Title: 8th Annual Dia de Los Muertos Phx Festival

Project Description: The 8th Annual Dia de Los Muertos PHX Festival on Sunday, October 27th, 2019 at Steele Indian School Park in Phoenix. Our goal is to celebrate the local Indigenous Arts community with a culturally relevant, family friendly program.

Amount Recommended: $3,150

6

Applicant: Dimitrov

Project Title: Bulgarian Folklore Festival 2019

Project Description: Bulgarian Folklore Festival provides awareness and education about the Bulgarian culture and heritage through dance performances, music and art.

Amount Recommended: $3,500

7

Applicant: DIRTYOGA LLC

Project Title: Root to Rise Festival

Project Description: Rooted in community, art, and nature we gather to rise! Root to Rise Festival is a family-friendly event held in Civic Space Park. Participants will experience a variety of classes which blend artistic expression with environmental elements.

Amount Recommended: $1,764

8

Applicant: Flamenco Por La Vida

Project Title: Lluvia Flamenca

Project Description: Lluvia Flamenca is committed to furthering the support and celebration of flamenco culture. Our vision is to build an understanding of and appreciation for Flamenco in Phoenix through music, dance, food, films and engaging diverse communities in conversation.

Amount Recommended: $3,325

9

Applicant: India Association of Phoenix

Project Title: Holi- Festival of Colors

Project Description: Celebration of the Festival Colors known as Holi. People from all walks of life are invited to celebrate the beginning of spring. Holi denotes forgive the past and look for new beginnings.

Amount Recommended: $3,150

10

Applicant: Indo American Cultural Connect

Project Title: Indradhanush 2020- Folk Dances of the World

Project Description: Presentation of select folk dances from various regions of the world. The dances will be performed by professional dancers mainly from Metro Phoenix area. This will be a professional presentation by diverse folk dancers collaborating together. Dates TBD

Amount Recommended: $2,625

11 Applicant: Japanese Friendship Garden of Phoenix

Project Title: Haru in the Garden- A Festival Welcoming Spring 2020

Project Description: Haru in the Garden - A Celebration of Spring will be presented on Saturday, March 22, 2020. In Japanese culture, spring represents the birth of life. Spring inspired Japanese arts and culture will be shared with participants.

Amount Recommended: $3,150

12 Applicant: Nuebox

Project Title: DANCEFEST

Project Description: This will be the 4th Annual DANCEFEST culminates in a festival of dance performances by 6 Phoenix High Schools, local colleges and universities, and professional artists.

Amount Recommended: $3,325

13 Applicant: Pathways to the World, Inc

Project Title: Soul West Fest

Project Description: Soul West Fest is the hottest, most exclusive 3 day urban film and music festival.

Amount Recommended: $2,975

14 Applicant: Phoenix Blues Society

Project Title: Blues Blast 2020 and two free events

Project Description: National and local blues artists bring America's original music to Phoenix for a one day festival. This all-volunteer run festival is family friendly. Children are always free; discounts for veterans

Amount Recommended: $3,325
