Here's another opportunity to get in on the basketball excitement this weekend: The HBCU All-Star Game! It's happening this Sunday, April 7, at Grand Canyon University Global Credit Union Arena. City of Phoenix employees can use code CPHX to receive a discount when purchasing tickets at gcutickets.eventue.net. While supplies last.

Before game time, be sure to check out the HBCU Fan Fest! The free event kicks off at 11 a.m. in the Quad Area on GCU's campus. There are also HBCU All-Star events happening all week. Many of them are free!

CONGRATULATIONS AND THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE!

The City recently recognized 102 employees for their City service. The honorees celebrated quinquennial work anniversaries, between 25 and 40 years, during the first quarter of 2024. They were acknowledged at the City Manager's Quarterly Service Awards ceremony for their hard work, commitment, and contributions towards building the Phoenix of tomorrow.

RESIDENT INPUT NEEDED

The City of Phoenix Office of Heat Response and Mitigation is updating the Tree and Shade Plan and needs resident input. Take the community feedback questionnaire at Phoenix.gov/Heat to share your thoughts on where trees and shade are needed in Phoenix.

The questionnaire is completely anonymous and will take approximately 15 minutes to complete.

SHOW YOUR SUPPORT

April is Sexual Assault Awareness month! Join us in supporting the Let's Talk Teal Campaign to help prevent sexual assault and support survivors. On April 24, wear denim and your Denim Day Sticker to show your support.

Email copstrategicinitiatives@phoenix.gov to order your Department's Denim Day Stickers. Visit PHX Strategic Initiatives for more information.

NEW PAYMENT OPTION

Valley Metro is updating fare technology (what riders use to pay) and this summer bus/light rail riders will have the option to pay on the app or use the new reloadable Copper cards. It's super easy! Load money onto your account and scan/tap every time you ride using the new pay-as-you-go system. Learn more and sign up for updates at valleymetro.org/faretechnology.

April 1-5 is National Community Development Week, a time in which the City of Phoenix highlights the importance of the Community Development Block Grant. The program, which is part of the U.S Department of Housing and Urban Development, aims to build strong, resilient, and vibrant communities across Phoenix by ensuring equitable access to opportunities and benefiting families and communities.

Learn more about grant-funded projects at phoenix.gov/nsd/programs/grant-opportunities.

Visit Maricopa.gov/BTW for full details and to register.

LEAD SAFE PHOENIX

NATIONAL HEALTHY HOMES MONTH 2024

April is National Healthy Homes Month, which focuses on the importance of creating and maintaining a healthy home by removing items that are a risk to your family's health and safety. These dangers include lead-based paint, radon, mold, moisture, pests, and poor ventilation and air quality.

For resources that can help keep your family and home safe and healthy all year, visit phoenix.gov/leadsafe.

FAIR HOUSING MONTH

The Equal Opportunity Department, Housing Department, and the Southwest Fair Housing Council, are celebrating National Fair Housing Month. The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, financing, and other housing-related transactions based on race, color, religion, sex (including sexual orientation, gender identity or expression), national origin, disability, and familial status.

The City of Phoenix also prohibits discrimination due to an applicant's source of income -- for example, Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers, Social Security Disability Income, Veteran's Benefits, or other forms of government assistance. For information on free Fair Housing workshops, visit phoenix.gov/calendar. To file a complaint, call the Equal Opportunity Department at 602-262-7486.
