

A large, illuminated marquee sign for the Orpheum Theatre is the central focus. The sign is mounted on a building facade and features the word 'ORPHEUM' in large, white, three-dimensional letters. Each letter is filled with numerous small, glowing yellow light bulbs. The marquee is set against a clear blue sky with scattered white clouds. Below the marquee, a street scene is visible, including a 'STOP HERE FOR PEDESTRIANS' sign and modern buildings.
