

Finalist #2

Hector Rodriguez, AIA

Tecnico

hector@tecnico.la

In response to Phoenix's need for affordable and adaptable housing, this versatile and attractive ADU maximizes density and constructability while maintaining a strong relationship between the indoor and outdoor spaces. The adaptable design fosters both communal connections and privacy, while enhancing energy efficiency through a thoughtful design. The ADU incorporates universal design principles throughout to ensure accessibility for all, including elderly residents or those with mobility challenges.

