

Finalist #8

Kevin Kolden and Anna Castillo

Richärd Kennedy Architects

kkolden@rkarch.com

The SIP-Casita Module offers an innovative solution to Phoenix's housing challenges by addressing both affordability and income generation for homeowners, while providing long-lasting value. This modular, prefabricated accessory dwelling unit (ADU) design is highly flexible and energy-efficient, making it ideal for urban environments where space and resources are limited.

