Domestic Incident Turns Deadly

(October 11, 2025): Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a shooting that left a man dead after breaking into his ex-girlfriend's home.

On October 10, 2025, at approximately 11:25 p.m., officers responded to a threat call at an apartment near 32nd Street and Southern Avenue. When officers arrived, they found a woman outside with her two children. The woman told officers she shot her ex-boyfriend, who was still inside her apartment. Officers entered the apartment and found the man inside, unresponsive with a gunshot wound. The fire department responded and transported the man to the hospital, where he died from his injuries.

Homicide detectives responded to the scene and continued the investigation. Preliminary information suggests the man and the woman had recently ended their relationship. The man came over that evening and forced his way into the apartment. The woman later shot the man and left the apartment to meet officers. After consulting with the Maricopa County Attorney's Office on this case, the woman was released. This investigation remains active. A charging decision will be made once the investigation is complete. Next of kin notifications are pending.
