Man Booked for Murder After Woman Found Dead

(December 2, 2025) Phoenix Police detectives have booked a man for the murder of a woman in late November.

On November 22, 2025, at around 1:05 p.m., officers responded to the area of 1500 South 3rd Avenue regarding a dead body. When officers arrived, they found an adult female, identified as 66-year-old Lilly Fields, deceased. Detectives responded to assume the investigation. The scene investigation revealed elements of a homicide, which was confirmed by the Office of the Medical Examiner.

Homicide Detectives worked tirelessly on this case, ultimately establishing probable cause to arrest the suspect, identified as 64-year-old Virgil Lindsey. On December 1, 2025, Lindsey was booked on murder charges related to this investigation. Lindsey and Fields were intimate partners making this a domestic violence case.

At this time, detectives do not believe any additional suspects are involved in this case. Additional details related to this incident remain part of the ongoing investigation.
