Fatal Hit and Run Collision

At approximately 6:20 a.m., officers responded to a two-vehicle collision near 2600 North 43rd Avenue. Call comments indicated the driver of a BMW fled the scene after the initial crash.

Officers and fire personnel arrived and found the adult female driver of a Toyota Camry with serious injuries. She was transported to the hospital. Officers then learned that after the first collision, the BMW struck an adult female pedestrian before crashing into a fence. The pedestrian was transported in extremely critical condition. The pedestrian did not survive her injuries and was pronounced deceased.

The driver of the BMW was not located at the scene. Detectives responded and conducted follow up at the home of the registered owner. The driver was located at the home with serious injuries. He was transported to the hospital and once medically cleared he will be booked for hit and run and other related charges.
