Homicide Investigation

Just after midnight on May 25, 2026, Glendale Police officers responded to a reported shooting near 61st Avenue and Bell Road. During that response, officers obtained information about a possible second, related shooting at a residence near 48th Avenue and Paradise Lane in Phoenix.

Glendale officers responded to the Phoenix location and entered the home. Inside, they located two children and an adult female, 38-year-old Andrea Davis, all suffering from apparent gunshot wounds. Phoenix Fire Department responded and pronounced all three deceased on scene.

The Glendale Police Department requested the Phoenix Police Department assume the investigation into the Paradise Lane incident. Glendale police continue to investigate the original shooting on Bell Road.

Phoenix Police homicide detectives responded to process the scene and begin the investigation. Preliminary information indicates the Glendale shooting is connected to the incident in Phoenix. In the Phoenix case, detectives believe Andrea Davis shot and killed the two children before taking her own life. A handgun was recovered inside the residence during the execution of a search warrant.

For updates or additional information regarding the Glendale shooting, please contact the Glendale Police Department.
