UPDATE (July 2nd, 2022)

The suspect in this case has been identified as Kristopher Johnson, a 40-year-old male.

Aggravated Assault on Police Officer Investigation

Phoenix Police detectives are investigating an officer involved shooting that occurred after a man fired handgun rounds at police officers.

On June 30th around 11:15 p.m. Phoenix police received a call about a suspicious person in the area of 107th Avenue and Camelback Road. Officers contacted a man in the area and were speaking to him, when they heard a gunshot nearby. The attention was diverted to another man that was holding a gun. The man fired rounds in the direction of officers and that is when the officer involved shooting occurred.

The man fled through the neighborhood and pursuing officers lost sight of him. A short time later, Phoenix police received a call of a man with a gunshot wound in the area. Officers responded to a nearby residence and took an adult male into custody. That subject was identified as the person who shot at officers.

At this time, Detectives are still speaking to witnesses, collecting evidence, and investigating what led up to this incident.

During this incident there were no injuries to officers or other members of the community.
