Evening Collision Leaves One Man Dead

(October 30, 2024) Phoenix Police Vehicular Crimes detectives investigate a west phoenix fatal collision.

On October 29, 2024, around 7:30 p.m., officers responded to an injury collision in the area of 7400 West Thomas Road. Officers arrived on scene and located an adult male later identified as 56-year-old Kevin James Clark suffering serious injuries. The fire department responded and pronounced the man deceased.

Investigators responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that unit 1 a pickup truck driven by a 17-year-old male was traveling eastbound on Thomas Road at a high speed when the vehicle collided with unit 2 a sedan.

Unit 2 the sedan operated by a 56-year-old male was traveling northbound on 73rd Lane when the driver attempted to turn west onto Thomas Road and was struck by unit 1. The operator of Unit 1 sustained very minor injuries and remained on scene. The operator of Unit 2 sustained fatal injuries and was pronounced on scene. At this time impairment is not believed to be a factor.

Final charging decision will be made once the collision reconstruction is completed.

Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
