One Man in Jail After Fatally Stabbing Another

(July 31, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives have booked a man after he stabbed a man to death in Central Phoenix.

On July 31, 2024, around 9:00 a.m., officers responded to the area of 17th Avenue and Spruce Street after the Phoenix Fire Department located an adult male, identified as 36-year-old Gabriel Trejo, with multiple stab wounds. Trejo was pronounced deceased on scene. Officers responded and secured the scene.

Homicide detectives responded to assume the investigation. Detectives processed the scene, canvassed for surveillance footage and worked several avenues of follow-up resulting in the suspect in the homicide being identified as 25-year-old Alexander Martin Roman Reyes. Reyes was located and arrested nearby. Reyes refused to speak about the incident. He was booked into jail on one count of murder.

Detectives do not believe any other suspects are outstanding, however this remains an ongoing investigation. Currently there is not a booking number available for Reyes. Once the booking process is complete an updated media advisory will be sent out including this information.
