Overnight Shooting Leaves One Man Dead Another Booked

(November 29, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating the overnight murder of one man resulting in the suspect being booked into jail.

On November 29, 2024, around 1:00 a.m., officers responded to a home in the area of 50th Avenue and St. Anne Avenue regarding a shooting. When officers arrived, they learned that an adult male, later identified as 27-year-old Luis Eduardo Beltran Arteaga, had been shot by a known suspect. Beltran Arteaga was transported to a nearby hospital by family members after the shooting, but he did not survive his injuries. Witnesses at the scene told officers that the suspect ran from the home on foot into the neighborhood. The suspect, identified as 23-year-old Jose Luis Fajardo, was eventually located and arrested nearby the home.

Homicide detectives responded to assume the investigation. Detectives learned that earlier in the night, Fajardo and an adult female were involved in a fight near 47th Avenue and Van Buren Street that resulted in Fajardo firing a handgun multiple times. No injuries were suffered by the woman. She returned to the home near 50th Avenue and St. Anne after this incident. Around 1:00 a.m., Fajardo went to this residence and forced entry through an exterior door. Fajardo located Beltran Arteaga inside of the home and shot the victim. Fajardo ran from the home after the shooting.

Fajardo is in the process of being booked on multiple felony charges for the two incidents that occurred overnight, to include murder. Once this process is complete, I will be able to release the related MCSO booking number. Additional details related to this incident remain part of the ongoing investigation.
