Man Dead After Midday Shooting

(May 16, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a midday shooting that left a man dead and ended with the suspect being involved in an officer involved shooting.

On May 16, 2024, around 2:15 p.m., Phoenix police officers responded to a residence near 33rd Drive north or Northern Avenue. When officers arrived, they located an adult male, identified as 29-year-old Brandon Russell, with at least one gunshot wound. Russell was transported to a nearby hospital, but he did not survive these injuries and was pronounced deceased.

Detectives responded to assume the investigation. It was learned that the adult male suspect and Russell were involved in an argument that resulted in the suspect shooting Russell. The suspect left the area before police arrival. He was located by Phoenix Police and involved in an officer involved shooting. See the related media advisory for information on this portion of the incident. Additional details related to this incident remain part of the ongoing investigation.
