Vision

S'edav Va'aki Museum will be recognized as the gateway to the cultural history of the Phoenix area. In collaboration with our communities, we will create memorable experiences that link past to present.

To honor the site of S'edav Va'aki Museum as a unique community resource through sound preservation practices, engaging educational programs, and the thoughtful care and presentation of cultural materials. For all audiences, S'edav Va'aki Museum will foster understanding, appreciation, and respect for our shared cultural history.

Land Acknowledgement Statement

The City of Phoenix acknowledges that it is located within the homeland of the O'Odham and Piipaash peoples and their ancestors, who have inhabited this landscape from time immemorial to present day. The landscape is sacred and reflects cultural values central to the O'Odham and Piipaash way of life and their self- definition. This acknowledgment demonstrates our commitment to work in partnership with the Ancestral Indigenous Communities to foster understanding, appreciation, and respect for this heritage.

For the complete acknowledgement click this link:

As of right now, S'edav Va'aki Museum is part of Arts and Culture.

Inclusion Statement

S'edav Va'aki's mission to foster understanding, appreciation and respect for our shared cultural history includes a deep recognition that multiple voices and perspectives enrich our work. Thus, we embrace broad definitions of diversity and inclusion as core values and as fundamental elements in providing enriching environments for our guests, volunteers, stakeholders and staff.

At S'edav Va'aki Museum, we are committed to providing universal access to our environment and our learning experiences. We are dedicated to ensuring that differences are valued and respected and that all members of our community have the opportunity to be fully engaged participants in our mission.

What to Expect on a Fieldtrip

Get hands-on with prehistory! Students learn about the unique cultural landscape of the Ancestral Sonoran Desert People, known to archaeologists as the Hohokam, by visiting S'edav Va'aki, a 1,500-year-old village site. Students will explore reconstructed houses, discover the wonders of a prehistoric irrigation system, learn about the science of archaeology, and gain a greater appreciation for the ingenuity and skill of the First Peoples.

* S'edav Va'aki Museum will be experiencing renovations throughout the next year and into 2027, which may be accompanied by loud noises and gallery closures. Please call or email us before your visit to get a better idea of what state the museum will be in during your field trip. ****

How to Schedule a School Field Trip

To book a school field trip, fill out our online form on our website under the Book a Reservation page: <https://www.phoenix.gov/administration/departments/sedav-vaaki/education/reservations>.

If you prefer to call S'edav Va'aki Museum to schedule your field trip, you can reach us at (602) 495-0901, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

S'edav Va'aki Museum only schedules field trip requests on Monday, Thursday, and Friday. The site is closed every Tuesday and Wednesday. School groups may request an introduction to the museum and archaeological site. Introductions begin at 10:00 a.m., Mondays, Thursdays, and Fridays, from October through April. After the introduction, the remainder of the visit will be self-guided. The recommended group size is 60 students. Larger groups will be asked to divide their group and visit in person on two separate days. Teachers are required to call a minimum of 2 weeks before their visit to confirm their reservation.

The average self-guided visit takes approximately 1½ - 2 hours and larger groups may take longer. Please have a few dates available and schedule them as far in advance as possible.

1. When you contact us, we will ask for the following information:

- Possible field trip date(s)
- Name and address of school
- Title 1 school status
- Name of contact person
- Phone number and e-mail of contact person
- Number of students and grade level
- Any special considerations or special needs
- Craft/activity requests (requiring additional fees)
- Method of payment (cash, check, purchase order or credit card)

2. After booking a fieldtrip, you will receive a confirmation e-mail about your reservation.
3. We strongly suggest that teachers schedule a FREE visit to S'edav Va'aki Museum to prepare for their future field trip. They may bring one additional guest for free admission. Please download an Education Invitation Letter at the link below and bring a copy with you.
<https://www.phoenix.gov/administration/departments/sedav-vaaki/education/resources>
4. S'edav Va'aki Museum offers virtual programs for pre/post visit content, which include educational videos and activities. Videos can be found on the virtual programming page of our website at:
<https://www.phoenix.gov/administration/departments/sedav-vaaki/education/virtual-programming>

Accommodations

Our museum is dedicated to creating a safe and comfortable environment for all our guests, including those with neurodivergent needs. Please let us know ahead of time if anyone visiting the museum during your field trip may require an accommodation. We will try our best to ensure that all our guests feel that their needs are being met. S'edav Va'aki Museum staff and volunteers understand that museums can be overwhelming for some. We offer Discovery Backpacks (9 available, limit of 18 students) at the front desk, that include noise cancelling headphones, fidget toys and other engaging activities. Guests can borrow these backpacks for the time of their visit at no additional cost.

In the effort to create a space where all feel included and welcomed, S'edav Va'aki Museum offers a variety of accommodations for guests that include electronic doors (ADA push button operated), an ADA accessible outdoor trail, closed captioning on informational videos, and two manual wheelchairs. Wheelchairs are available free of charge on a first-come, first-served basis. Please let us know ahead of time if anyone visiting the museum during your field trip may require accommodation.

For any accommodation requests or concerns,
please email us at svmeducation@phoenix.gov or call us at (602) 495-0901,
Monday, Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

School Field Trip Fees

Admission Fees
Student	$3/person
Teacher / Chaperone	$13/person

Adult to Student entry ratio is 1:7
For every 7 students, 1 Teacher/Chaperone is required.

For example:

7 students require 1 chaperone
20 students require 3 chaperones
30 students require 4 chaperones
60 students require 8 chaperones

For every 7 students, 1 chaperone or teacher will be granted free admission into the museum. If there are more chaperones in your group than the ratio allows for free entry, you will need to pay the $13.00 adult museum admission fee.

Please note: On the day of your field trip, the number of chaperones/teachers who receive admission will be based on the number of students you actually bring.

*Activities and crafts are available for an additional fee. These must be ordered when group reservation is made. Please see net page for prices.

Payments

- Purchase Order payments MUST be received two weeks prior to your visit.
- Payments can be made in advance OR on the day of your visit via cash, check or credit cards. (Make checks payable to: City of Phoenix)

Additional Activities:

Craft Kits - $4 per student

Kit requests must be made during initial field trip reservations. Kits will be packaged for easy assembly back at school. Each kit also includes an educational PowerPoint and instructions. Onsite crafts require a special reservation. Types of craft activities are listed on the next page.

Detective Archaeology - $5 per student (Limit 15 students at a time)

Put away your shovel and put on your detective hat! There is more to archaeology than just digging. The artifacts uncovered tell a story about the past. Using real artifacts, students will gather on a reconstructed pit house floor and learn how an archaeologist pieces together clues about past cultures. This activity adds 30-45 minutes to your visit.

Doohickey Kits - $5 per student

Using pre-assembled kits filled with multiple, familiar objects, students will learn about the archaeological method of classification. This method of grouping objects based on their attributes helps answer questions about customs, practices, activities and rituals that are important to a community. Classification is not only used in archaeology, but other sciences as well.

Discovery Backpacks - Free (9 backpacks available, activity limit 18 students)

Discovery Backpacks encourage guests to explore the museum and site through hands-on learning. The backpack contents are intended to foster inclusion for guests of all ages and neurodiverse abilities, spark interest, and be entertaining, as well as educational. Materials inside the backpacks include information about water, architecture, mapping, geology, and local fauna. Contact us if you would like to learn more. This activity is done as you do your self-guided visit.

Agents of Discovery - Free

Using your own smart phone or tablet, learn about the Ancestral Sonoran Desert People through this educational, interactive augmented reality (AR) game. Walk around the S'edav Va'aki site and find challenges to solve with Agent Quinn a Gambel's Quail. We highly recommend downloading the app prior to visiting.

To get started:

1. Download the Agents of Discovery game on your mobile device.

Find it for free on Apple App Store and Google Play Store.

2. Search and download the S'edav Va'aki Mission.

Craft Kit Activities

The Museum offers a wide range of Native American inspired craft activities. These crafts supplement topics learned by your students during their visit. If you are interested in any of the crafts below, please let us know when you schedule your field trip. Craft activities are $4.00/craft per student.

Shell Jewelry (K - 1st grade)

The Ancestral Sonoran Desert People traded for marine shell with people in the Gulf of Mexico and along the California coast. The shells would then be decorated. Create a design on a printed paper shell shape that will be put on string to simulate the traditional craft of shell decorating. Time: 30 minutes (including instruction/demonstration)

Sandpaper Pictographs (K – 1st grade) Did you know the Ancestral Sonoran Desert People made special designs on rocks called pictographs? Learn about these rare works of art as you create your own. Time: 30 minutes (including instruction/ demonstration)

Embellished Desert Tortoise

(1st - 3rd grade)

Tortoises have lived on earth since the Miocene Epoch, and their shells have been critical to their survival. Create a desert tortoise out of card stock with an embellished shell using yarn, markers, and glitter. Time: 30 minutes (including instruction/demonstration)

Pony Bead Corn (1st - 4th grade)

Corn is one of the most important and widely grown crops in the world. Did you know that all corn arose from a single domestication approximately 9,000 years ago? Learn about this amazing crop as you make your own pony bead corn on the cob. Time: 30-40 minutes (including discussion and instruction)

Plaster Petroglyphs (3rd- 6th grade)

Students create their own petroglyphs with prehistoric design elements. Time: 30-40 minutes (including discussion and design time)

Prehistoric Pottery (3rd- 6th grade)

Learn about prehistoric pottery making techniques of the Southwest. Students will make their very own coil or pinch pot! Time: 30-40 minutes (including discussion and instruction)

Yucca and Agave Inspired Cordage (only for 6th grade and up)

Students learn the traditional craft of making a two-strand cord. Create a bracelet using the raffia cordage & beads. Time: 30-40 minutes (including discussion and design time)

Site Introduction

The introduction summarizes the significance of the site of S'edav Va'aki and the Ancestral Sonoran Desert People who lived at this location. It also addresses the connection the site has to the O'odham and Piipaash peoples. Exploration of the outdoor interpretive trail and museum galleries is self-guided.

- Introductions start promptly at 10:00a.m. and will be roughly 15 minutes in length. If you arrive early, after checking in, you are welcome to do a portion of your self-guided visit whilst you wait.
- If you are over half an hour late for your scheduled reservation, we will not be able to offer an introduction.
- Groups of more than sixty (60) students require special approval prior to your visit. Large groups require more time for their Site Introduction and visit in general, due to occupancy capacities. Please inquire when making your reservation.

Lunch

We have picnic tables that seat up to 75 people, available on a first-come, first serve basis. There are no food services or vending machines on site.

The Day of Your Field Trip

- Cultural Awareness – To teachers with Native American students, please inform their parent/guardian in advance that their child will be visiting an ancestral site.
- Upon arrival, please have the group form a single-file line on the walkway in front of the museum to allow room for other guests to walk by. Prior to the start of your visit, please have a teacher check in at the front desk to pay and report on the number of students and the number of adults attending.
- Due to limited space, no more than 30 children at a time will be allowed inside the museum building.
- Restrooms are in the museum lobby. Only 5 children are allowed inside the restroom at the same time and must be monitored by a chaperone or teacher.
- If you request a site introduction, it will take place at 10:00 a.m.
- You will be shown where items, such as lunches, may be stored. This is an unsecured location, so no personal items should be left unattended.
- Chaperones must always remain with their group. It is the responsibility of chaperones (and teachers) to maintain orderly student conduct and assist with the activities. Please remember this is a sacred site for many other visitors.
- Please ensure all guests stay on the trail and do not climb walls or move stones.
- It is highly encouraged for everyone to wear hats, closed-toed shoes, and bring bottled water when using the trail.
- Do not move or remove any artifacts.
- No food is allowed inside the museum.
- Drinks must have a closeable lid.
- The museum and outdoor interpretive trail are ADA accessible.
