“Volunteers have the best interest of our city at heart, and on behalf of the 1.4 million people in the city of Phoenix, I thank you for donating your time, your effort and your hearts to make our community a better place.”

Mayor Greg Stanton

Take advantage of the beautiful spring weather and join us at one of our upcoming outdoor volunteer projects.
Become a Teen Volunteer with the Phoenix Public Library Department

The Phoenix Public Library is recruiting and training 300 teens this summer to volunteer at one of 17 branch locations citywide. Teens will volunteer 6-12 hours per week during June and July, assisting the children’s staff with the children’s summer reading program, “Read! Play! Win!”.

Volunteer duties include: explaining the reading program to children and parents, giving out reading prizes, encouraging young children to read, assisting with children’s programs and shelving library materials. Training is provided. Beginning April 1, 2012, volunteer applications will be available at each library branch and on myvolunteerphoenix.org.

Volunteers make it possible at HOPE VI Emmett McLoughlin Community Training and Education Center!

The services offered at the Housing HOPE VI Emmett McLoughlin Community Training and Education Center (CTEC) are possible only through the assistance of volunteers.

ASU interns from the School of Social Work volunteer by assisting with client case management, hosting groups and teaching classes. They are a key factor in continuing support for HOPE VI clients.

Throughout the year, student interns from the Phoenix Job Corps Security and Office Administration volunteer by helping with customer service, monitoring the building, providing directions and other office functions.

In addition, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) volunteers provide free income tax preparation assistance to low-income, elderly, disabled and limited English speaking people. Every Saturday during tax season, seven VITA volunteers assisted an average of 30 individuals by preparing their income taxes.

Thank you to all volunteers who continue to make this center a success!

Become a Phoenix Youth Explorer!

The Phoenix Police Explorer program is designed to educate and involve young men and women, ages 14-19, in police operations and to interest them in law enforcement functions and community involvement.

This can include ride-along patrols with officers, working with the silent witness program or raising funds for officers injured or killed in the line of duty and/or their families. Participants also have the opportunity to give to their community by volunteering eight hours per month and attending regular community meetings.

Visit phoenix.gov/volunteer for more information.
