

In our March edition of Neighborhood News, read and share this updated resourceful information for the current public health emergency, city budget updates, U.S. Census and more.

During this public health emergency, we are working diligently in cooperation with the Phoenix City Council and City Management to protect our residents, city employees, and all our small businesses. As we follow the federal and state government precautionary recommendations and legislative relief, we're advocating for the safety and support of our residents. We understand the social, economic, and medical impact this has on all of us, and we're committed to support everyone as best we can through these circumstances.

CORONAVIRUS (COVID-19) PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY INFORMATION

We are constantly consolidating and sharing the most useful and current resources for our community members, residents, and neighbors, especially for those experiencing health and economic hardship during this crisis. These resources from the City of Phoenix and State of Arizona include active employment opportunities, unemployment insurance information, mental and medical health:

CURRENT CITY SERVICE IMPACTS

In our current digital age, it is important to access factual, reliable, and up to date information about the current public health emergency. If you haven't already, the Phoenix Newsroom- <https://www.phoenix.gov/Newsroom>- provides detailed information about city services, specifically from the department of emergency management and homeland security.

CITY BUDGET & NEIGHBORHOOD UPDATE

- City Budget online survey – Due to current restrictions on public gatherings, we unfortunately had to cancel our customary community budget hearings. This year, we are asking all District 5 constituents to submit our online survey: <http://bit.ly/2IHq67z>

WHAT ARE YOUR PRIORITIES?

Tell us your priorities for the city budget:

<http://bit.ly/2IHq67z>

- 1) Submit the online engagement survey
- 2) Submit a #FUNDPHX proposal budget.

- The Gated Alley Pilot Program (GAPP) - GAPP was approved by the full council at the Formal meeting on Wed. March 18th, 2020. The details of the program have yet to be established, but we have seen how gated alleys have improved safety and cleanliness in neighborhoods. This is a victory that we have worked for since our inauguration in June, and we are thankful and proud of our neighborhood leaders who advocated for it for years.

April 1, 2020 was Census Day

Wednesday, April 1st, 2020, National Census Day and for the first time ever you can complete your Census online. Go to my2020census.gov to complete your Census form. It takes less than 10 minutes and will impact Arizona for the next 10 years

The Census is a snapshot of people living in the U.S. on April 1, 2020. Currently, Arizona is below the national average in Census response. Let's work together to boost that number! Individuals can respond online to the Census until August 14, 2020.

Overview

In difficult times like this, we appreciate all of the essential workers who are on the front lines fighting Covid-19 and serving our residents, especially our first responders and all of our other city employees. In order to support them and flatten the curve it is crucial that we practice social distancing to stop the spread.
