COWORKING

Coworking spaces offer a professional work environment in a communal setting. Businesses purchase memberships which can range in levels from a “hot desk” (a desk not specifically assigned) to assigned desk space to walled office space. Educational opportunities and events are common during evening hours.

ALL IN Workspace shared coworking space is bringing entrepreneurs and creative thinkers together in a place where the possibilities are endless. We offer month-to-month memberships at affordable prices along with front desk services, conference rooms, kitchen, entertainment & events, high speed Internet and many more amenities.

www.allinworkspace.com

CO+Hoots

This shared office space opened in 2010 and was the first of its kind in downtown Phoenix. Collaboration culture make this place tick, and amenities include free utilities, shower, kitchen, lounge area and endless jolts of java from the locally owned, Greater Than Coffee. CO+Hoots was recently ranked the #6 coworking space in the world by Ubiq, a San Francisco based marketing company.

www.cohoots.com

Elevate

It’s a house turned office space. Co-working on 15th Ave has three membership options starting at $150 per month. It believes in living a healthy lifestyle so the space offers members opportunities to participate in a range of physical activities like bike riding, hiking and dodgeball, through events and partnerships.

www.coworkingon15th.com

Galvanize

Elevate is a coworking community space focused on community and collaboration. The space was designed to overcome the isolation and stagnation that many freelancers, entrepreneurs and solo business owners experience when working in a home-based office.

elevatecoworking.com/

galvanize

Galvanize brings industry and education together, where students learn web development and data science, while entrepreneurs work to bring innovation, growth and talent to their organizations. Galvanize offers 3 levels of membership and all include access to the 55,000 sq ft campus, conference rooms, mentors, workshops, etc. starting at $249/mo.

www.galvanize.com/campuses/phoenix-warehouse-district/
hive @ central is all business! Offering entrepreneurs and small business owners the tools they need to start and grow their dream, hive @ central is a place for discovery which combines elements of a co-working space with expert library fact-finding services and resources. Located on the second floor of Burton Barr Central Library, hive @ central is open to the public and all services are free.

www.phoenixpubliclibrary.org/hive

mod is an ultra chic workspace with a full-service café and bar with beer and wine on tap. Memberships range from $7 per hour to $35 per day and include extras such as concierge services, private conference rooms, a large event space and an outdoor patio for meetings.

www.thatsmod.com

The Department is a 16,000 square foot shared office space for entrepreneurs and leaders in the heart of downtown Phoenix. An initiative of Marketplace One and Urban Plough Arts, they offer flex, reserved, and suite memberships, tailored to the specific needs of individuals and teams.

www.departmentphx.com

Union WorkSpace is a collaborative office concept set in an architecturally defined environment. They offer members permanent work spaces amongst a community of unique professionals centered around the architecture, engineering, landscaping and construction industries.

unionworkspace.com/