2017 ANNUAL PHOENIX HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION AWARDS

Each year the Phoenix Human Relations Commission, in collaboration with the city of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department, recognizes the accomplishments of Phoenix area residents, including youth, who contribute significantly to creating a compassionate and socially just community. Honorees will be recognized on January 13, 2017, during the Arizona Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Awards Breakfast. In 1994, Calvin C. Goode was the first recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award.

Calvin C. Goode Lifetime Achievement Award

This award recognizes exceptional individuals who have made Phoenix a better place to live through a lifelong dedication to promoting social and economic justice, defending civil rights and enhancing the dignity of all people.

In his 22-year tenure with the Phoenix City Council, Goode worked tirelessly to ensure these rights for all residents. Guided by a deeply held belief in equality for all people, his life exemplifies a powerful commitment to improving the quality of life in Phoenix, especially for young people.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Living the Dream Award

This award recognizes individuals who embody the ideas of Dr. King through their continued personal commitment to human relations and social justice.
