Award Questions

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Living the Dream Award & Calvin C. Goode Lifetime Achievement Award

Please answer all questions completely and individually.

1. How has the nominee continued to demonstrate a personal commitment to enhancing the dignity of all people beyond their regular job duties? Must include specific examples over the last 2-3 years. Incomplete nominations will not be considered.

2. Dr. King taught that non-violence should be a way of life. Please describe how the nominee’s efforts have addressed four or more of the following core values:
   - Non-violence
   - Love
   - Commitment
   - Courage
   - Social justice
   - Leadership
   - Racial equality

3. In what way has the nominee continued to help to improve the quality of life of all Phoenix residents? Include specific examples over the last 2-3 years.
Each year the Phoenix Human Relations Commission, in collaboration with the city of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department, recognizes the accomplishments of Phoenix area residents, including youth, who contribute significantly to creating a compassionate and socially just community. Honorees will be recognized on January 12, 2018, during the Arizona Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Awards Breakfast. In 1994, Calvin C. Goode was the first recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award.

Calvin C. Goode Lifetime Achievement Award
This award recognizes exceptional individuals who have made Phoenix a better place to live through a lifelong dedication to promoting social and economic justice, defending civil rights and enhancing the dignity of all people. Nominations must emulate the life long dedication of Calvin C. Goode.

In his 22-year tenure with the Phoenix City Council, Goode worked tirelessly to ensure these rights for all residents. Guided by a deeply held belief in equality for all people, his life exemplifies a powerful commitment to improving the quality of life in Phoenix, especially for young people.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Living the Dream Award
This award recognizes individuals who embody the ideas of Dr. King through their continued personal commitment to human relations and social justice.

Nominations for youth are encouraged.
