Employment: The city of Phoenix does not discriminate on the basis of disability in its hiring or employment practices and complies with all regulations promulgated by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission under Title I of the ADA.

Effective Communication: The city of Phoenix will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in city programs, services and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: The city of Phoenix will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcomed in all city of Phoenix offices, even where pets are prohibited.

The ADA does not require the city to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services or impose an undue financial or administrative burden.

Complaints that a city program, service or activity is not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to Ira McCullough at ira.mccullough@phoenix.gov or by calling 602-495-5288.

The city of Phoenix will not place a surcharge on a particular individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy, such as retrieving items from locations that are open to the public but are not accessible to persons who use wheelchairs.
