Monitoring of Fire Alarm Systems

Reference 903.4.1

Monitoring is required for the following to line up monitoring requirements with national requirements for required sprinklers so that monitoring is not required for smaller buildings that the national code and State statute require. The alarm monitoring station shall identify all addresses of buildings and suites protected by the same sprinkler system and provide this information to the Phoenix Fire Department alarm room center.