This description shall not be held to exclude other duties not specifically mentioned that are of similar kind or level of difficulty as the examples of typical functions of the classification. They are intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed by individuals assigned to positions in this classification.

DEFINITION:

The fundamental reason this classification exists is to provide skilled professional recreation programming in a geographic area, specialist field, or for a major facility. Recreation Coordinator III assignments include programming at park and school sites, providing citywide programming in a specialty field such as special events, dance, drama, music, arts and crafts, special populations, senior citizens, outdoor sports, and supervising a major recreation facility such as an adult or community center.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

Supervision of full-time staff and administration over a specialty area or major facility differentiates this class from the Recreation Coordinator II.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED/GIVEN:

Some positions exercise supervision over Recreation Coordinators I and II, Parks Foremen, parks maintenance or part-time staff. Work is performed independently under the general review of a Recreation Supervisor.
