Community Initiatives

The Community Initiatives Section seeks to reduce poverty in Phoenix by building the capacity of community groups to address the needs of low-income residents and communities.

This is achieved primarily through innovative community practice that includes collaborating with a broad range of community groups and governmental entities. Programs include the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) campaign, Faith-Based Initiatives, and Financial Education.

FAMILY ADVOCACY CENTER & HOMELESS PROGRAMS

The Family Advocacy Center provides comprehensive services for victims of violent crime and their families. Through a collaborative effort with multiple agencies, the center is able to provide multiple services in one central location.

Services include:

- ◆ Crisis intervention
- ◆ Safety planning
- ◆ Assistance obtaining Orders of Protection and Injunctions Against Harassment
- ◆ Forensic medical exams
- ◆ Shelter access and emergency housing assistance
- ◆ Short-term counseling
- ◆ Information and referral services

Homeless Programs

The Homeless Programs Section supports homeless services through contracts with community-based organizations to provide emergency shelter, transitional housing, permanent supportive housing and other supportive services for homeless families and individuals.

The Watkins Emergency Shelter Program provides year-round emergency shelter and a range of services for single females and families. Services include sleeping accommodations, meals, health care, supervised activities for children, behavioral health services, case management and clothing.

Summer and Winter Respite programs coordinate the collection of essential items to be distributed to homeless people living on the streets of Phoenix. Items including water, sunscreen, hats, hygiene items, clothing, blankets and shoes are donated by the community and distributed by local street outreach teams.
