

Standard code enforcement process

The end result benefits the entire neighborhood.

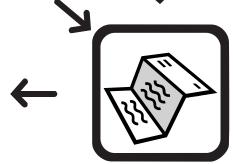

If violation has not been corrected, civil or criminal court action may be pursued and/or a contractual abatement may be completed.

Unoccupied properties: If the property is unoccupied, a prenotification letter is not issued. Instead, an inspection is done immediately.

At the expiration of the Notice of Violation the property is reinspected.

If violation is found, a Notice of Violation is issued.

