REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Request for Proposals to be Issued May 16: Development opportunity for South Phoenix Village.

Proposals are being sought for a developer(s) for the residential redevelopment (infill) of vacant lots in support of revitalization efforts in the South Phoenix Village neighborhood. The area of focus has a boundary from 24th Street east to 32nd Street, and from Broadway Road, south to Roeser Road.

On Friday, May 16, proposal packets will be available online at phoenix.gov/rfp or can be picked up at Phoenix City Hall, Neighborhood Services Department, 200 W. Washington St., fourth floor.

Interested applicants are encouraged to attend the optional RFP Pre-submission Conference at 2 p.m. Wednesday, May 28, 2014, at South Mountain Community Library Meeting Room located at 7050 S. 24th St., Phoenix.

Proposals are due by 1 p.m. Wednesday, June 25, 2014.

For more information, alternative format or reasonable accommodations, call 602-262-7344 (voice) or 602-534-5500 (TTY).
