

PHOENIX @WORK WEDNESDAYS

Darice Ellis

Environmental Quality
Specialist
Office of Sustainability

After a number of years working for the Environmental Protection Agency, Darice joined the city of Phoenix in 2006.

In her spare time, Darice consignment shops and gives her husband a hard time about his sports teams.

Darice's main job duties include the marketing and advancement of the city's sustainability goals.

Darice is implementing an initiative to enhance sustainability efforts on high school campuses.

Fast Facts

Favorite thing about the city:
"...gives me the opportunity to connect with others interested in empowering and playing to people's strengths."

Darice is a member of the city's Green Team and enjoys creating ways to educate city workers on sustainable living.

- ◆ Favorite app on phone:
Bitmoji(makes me laugh)
- ◆ Favorite restaurant:
The Noodle Bar
- ◆ Cannot start morning:
Without reading her daily devotional
- ◆ Often singing the song:
Theme from "Fresh Prince of Bel-Air"

Check out all of the profiles on our amazing city employees by clicking on this link.