The Weekly Connection Newsletter for City of Phoenix Employees • July 2, 2019

Green Bag Event

Phoenix has dramatically expanded investment in Phoenix for bus service, light rail construction and street improvements. The Phoenix

Transportation 2050 Plan will significantly upgrade the city's aging 5,000-mile street network and have a citywide impact on street needs; providing new pavement, increasing maintenance on existing streets, and adding bike lanes, sidewalks and ADA accessible/compliant upgrades. Guest speaker will be T2050 Program Manager Suresh Raghavendra. Details:

- ◆ Wednesday, July 10
- ◆ Noon - 1 p.m.
- ◆ Calvin C. Goode Building, 10E

Receive TRIPLE diversity training credits as your attendance will count toward your departmental goals.

Stepping into Retirement

After 32 years of service with the city, Cheryl Ryan-McCullough is ready to retire. She started in December of 1987 as an Account Clerk II with the Finance department. She moved to Aviation in 1990 and was regularly promoted as an Accountant until her current position as an Accountant III with Aviation. She played a key role in the development and implementation of the current Aviation contract management and billing system using the Flexible Real Estate module of SAP. In 1991, she was the employee of the year for Fiscal Management as well as served as a blood drive coordinator for many years.

Now heading into retirement, she is ready to start some home renovations and traveling. If you'd like to say good-bye:

- ◆ Tuesday, July 9
- ◆ 9 - 11 a.m.
- ◆ Aviation Corporate Office Building, 2485 E. Buckeye Rd.
