

PHOENIX @WORK WEDNESDAYS

Marilyn Barr

Facility Contract Compliance Specialist
Public Transit Department

Marilyn started with the city in 1999, working as a customer service clerk in Planning & Development.

Marilyn has been doing a lot of traveling lately and is now looking forward to being a grandma.

Not only does Marilyn ride the bus to and from work, she rides it 20 times a month as part of her job.

While riding, she looks for missing signs, broken marquees and even makes sure drivers are wearing their seatbelts.

Fast Facts

"I am dedicated to making sure that contract requirements are met so that customers can get the transit experience they deserve."

- ◆ 3 words to describe you:
Accurate, professional & energetic
- ◆ Unknown talent:
Has had teaching credentials for 20 years
- ◆ Quote any lines from:
Fiddler on the Roof
- ◆ Favorite kind of Pizza?
All pizza is good!

Favorite thing about working for the city of Phoenix:

"The opportunity to serve our bus passengers."

Check out all of our profiles on these amazing city employees by clicking on this link.