OUTSTANDING OPPORTUNITY

The city of Phoenix’s Youth and Education Office is accepting applications for the 2017 Outstanding Young Man/Young Woman of the Year awards.

This program recognizes and honors the outstanding achievements of young people, enhances the perception of youth and raises community awareness of their positive contributions.

- ◆ One young man and one young woman will be selected as winners from each city council district (16 total) and each receive a $500 award .
- ◆ Those district-level winners will be eligible to be selected as the overall Young Man and Young Woman winners. Each will receive an additional $1,500 award.

The awards are open to students currently enrolled in high school in Phoenix, or who live within the city limits. Eligible students can apply online by Feb. 12.

LUNCH AND LEARN

DATA PRIVACY DAY

Employees are invited to bring their lunch and attend a free Technological and Cultural Shifts in the Workplace and the Emerging Privacy Threat session in recognition of International Data Privacy Day.

In this session hosted by the Information Technology Services’ Information Security and Privacy Office (ISPO), you will learn how the government landscape is shifting technologically as digital demands increase and culturally as young workers take over the reins from an aging workforce. All of this impacts the business of government.

Data Privacy Day is an international effort to empower and educate people to protect their privacy and control their digital footprint. It is led by the National Cyber Security Alliance, a nonprofit, public-private partnership dedicated to cybersecurity education and awareness.

Details:

- ◆ Tuesday, Jan. 31
- ◆ Noon - 1 p.m.
- ◆ City Hall Assembly Rooms A, B & C
- ◆ No registration is required
