City of Phoenix employees continue to pay tribute to Officer David Glasser who died in the line of duty on May 19.

“We lost an outstanding member of our community, a father, and a great police officer,” said Police Chief Joseph Yahner. Click here to watch a short video tribute.

Officer David Glasser started his career with the Phoenix Police Department on Aug. 2, 2004. He served the community for 12 years. He was most recently assigned to the Neighborhood Enforcement Team in the Maryvale-Estrella Mountain Precinct. During his career, Officer Glasser also worked in the Desert Horizon, Central City and South Mountain Precincts.

He leaves behind a wife and two young children. If you would like to make a donation to the Glasser family, there are several ways to contribute. Be sure to mention Officer Glasser when making your donation.

- In person at any National Bank of Arizona branch. Click here for locations.
- PLEA Charities: Visit azplea.com/plea-charities
- 100 Club of Arizona Survivor Fund: 100club.org/web/Online
- Phoenix Police Foundation: Visit phxpolicefoundation.org/ and mention the “Officer David Glasser #8144 Donation Account” when you make your donation.

Funeral services for Officer David Glasser have been scheduled for Thursday, May 26 10 a.m. at Christ's Church of the Valley in Peoria. The following procession will lead to Phoenix Memorial Park and Cemetery where the internment will take place.

---

SUMMER TRAVEL

Flying This Summer? Check Out These Travel Tips

The Memorial Day holiday will kick-off the official start to the busy summer travel season at Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport, and America’s Friendliest Airport is offering the following tips for your summer getaways:

Give Yourself Plenty of Time

March saw an all-time passenger record at Sky Harbor airport. Travelers are encouraged to allow extra time checking in and getting through the security checkpoints. Arrive at least two hours before your flight departs if you are flying domestically and three hours if you are flying internationally.

Locals Know Where To Go

Avoid traffic and curb congestion by going to 44th Street and Washington and using the PHX Sky Train®. Take a fast ride to the terminals aboard the PHX Sky Train®. The handy station also offers amenities such as Early Bag Check and kiosks to print your boarding pass. In addition to a free cell phone waiting lot at the station, there are also four-hour parking meters for those who want to hop aboard the train to meet their party at the terminal. The PHX Sky Train station is on the southwest corner of 44th Street and Washington.

More travel tips are available at skyharbor.com
Davronja Dossie
Programming Director
Know99 TV

Davronja is responsible for the content that is broadcast on know99 TV, the city’s education channel.

In her spare time, she is all about her two sons, one in high school and the other in pre-k. She also likes to shop.

Davronja started as a paid intern in 1996, before taking a part-time job. She became full time in 2006.

Her days vary from negotiating programming contracts with Disney to working with ASU interns, editing, and being on-air.

“I love working with students and I love being able to mentor them... I always knew I wanted to be a teacher or broadcaster... And this is the perfect fit for me.”

Three things that describe her: Creative, generous and ambitious.

Fast Facts
✦ Unknown talent: Writes poetry
✦ Next on bucket list: Travel to Dominican Republic
✦ Favorite kind of pizza: Veggie deep dish
✦ Favorite kind of music: All types, but she’s an R&B girl

“WILD” EVENT

Let the “Wild Rumpus” begin! Burton Barr Central Library will soon host this nationally acclaimed exhibit featuring select works by iconic American illustrator and author Maurice Sendak.

This free exhibit, originally created to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Sendak’s classic children’s book Where the Wild Things Are, also includes additional renowned Sendak works in a variety of media. Revisit treasured characters and be part of introducing a new generation to a classic!

Family friendly programs including story times and movie screenings will be offered at all 17 Phoenix Public Library locations all summer long. Be sure to not miss out on these special events! Details:

✦ June 3 - July 17
✦ Burton Barr Library, 1221 N. Central Ave.

AROUND PHX

Watch your step! This not so friendly critter was hanging around the base of South Mountain recently, thanks to Dan Gronseth, Park Ranger III with the Parks and Recreation Department. He says “keep your eyes (and ears) open!”

THIS WEEK IN HISTORY

Click on the day to learn more about the story mentioned below.

✦ Monday 1934: Police take down Bonnie & Clyde
✦ Tuesday 1883: The Brooklyn Bridge opens
✦ Wednesday 1977: Original Star Wars hits theatres
✦ Thursday 1960: U.S. charges Soviets with espionage
✦ Friday 1941: FDR proclaims “unlimited national emergency”