

LEADERSHIP FORUM

The next Women in Leadership (WIL) forum is coming up and you are invited. WIL provides female employees a network of support and career development tools to thrive in the workplace, including preparation for leadership opportunities. Details on the next forum:

- ◆ Managing the Physical and Emotional Stress of Being a Leader
- ◆ Wednesday, Nov. 7
- ◆ Noon - 1 p.m.
- ◆ City Council Chambers

The open discussion format will feature:

- ◆ Debra Stark, Phoenix City Councilwoman
- ◆ Deanna Jonovich, Deputy City Manager
- ◆ Sharon Smith, Dean of Students, ASU Downtown Campus
- ◆ Darcy Kober, Director, Maricopa County Environmental Services

For more information, please contact Kerri Keller.

WIL
women in leadership

HOW TO VOTE

SPECIAL ELECTION IN PHOENIX

On Tuesday, Nov. 6, a Special Election will be held in the city of Phoenix to fill a vacancy for Mayor and on a ballot measure, as part of the State General Election.

To vote in the Special/General Election, voters can vote by mail or visit their polling place. For this election, polling places are designated by Maricopa County and will be open on Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 6, from 6 a.m. - 7 p.m. Identification is required when voting at a polling place.

Voters also may drop off their voted early ballot at any polling place in Maricopa County on Election Day, before the polls close at 7 p.m. Phoenix City Hall will not be a polling place on Election Day, however voters can drop off early ballots on the 1st and 15th floors during business hours from 8 a.m.- 5 p.m.

To find your polling place, please visit the Maricopa County elections page or call 602-506-1511.

For more information on the Special Election, visit the city's elections web page, call 602-261-VOTE (8683), use the 7-1-1 Relay System, or follow @PHXElections on Twitter.

RUG & ART AUCTION

Come see beautifully hand woven, one-of-a-kind Navajo rugs and more at the Pueblo

Grande Museum Auxiliary's 13th Annual Navajo Rug and American Indian Art Auction. This annual event is not only a great way to pick up some authentic works of American Indian art, but it's also a fundraiser! A portion of the proceeds benefit the Pueblo Grande Museum Auxiliary, which helps support the museums' preservation efforts, education programs, special events, exhibits and artifact collections care.

Trader Bruce Burnham will also share his knowledge about collecting Navajo rugs and American Indian art during an informal chat. Burnham is a dedicated and knowledgeable resource for learning how to appreciate and collect American Indian art. His family has been trading with the native peoples of the Four Corners area for five generations. Details:

- ◆ Saturday, Nov. 3
- ◆ Preview/bidding begins at 9 a.m.
- ◆ Auction begins at noon, free to attend
- ◆ Food will be for sale throughout the day
- ◆ Museum is open with regular admission
- ◆ For more information, visit Pueblo Grande's web page or call 602-495-0901.

LOCAL AUTHOR FAIR

Now is your chance to meet local authors from all over Arizona and learn about their books. Children, teen, adult fiction and non-fiction authors will be participating and signing their books, which could make for a unique and personalized holiday gift. Click here for a full list of local authors. Details:

- ◆ Just Read Local Author Fair
- ◆ Saturday, Nov. 3
- ◆ 11 a.m. - 2 p.m.
- ◆ Burton Barr Central Library

FUELING A DESERT CITY

For over 100 years, The city of Phoenix Water Services Department has delivered safe, reliable tap water to homes and businesses in our community. Today, Phoenix Water is one of the largest utilities in the United States serving more than 1.7 million customers high quality tap water. With a 100-year assured water supply and the vast infrastructure to continue providing the best quality in water and customer care, Phoenix Water will continue to build on its legacy of being responsible stewards of the environment and our most precious resource for generations to come.

JOB OF THE WEEK

Featured Listing: Sign Inspector, Planning and Development Department, $20.61 - $30.29/hr.

“Reviews site plans and schematic drawings, perform on-site field checks and determines the disposition of all applications for the installation of new signs or alteration of existing signs on private property. Investigates sign complaints for compliance with the Zoning Ordinance and zoning stipulations. Orders the discontinuance, removal, or alteration of conditions which violate sign review ordinances and institutes legal actions against unresolved violations. Communicates with the public, business owners, architects, contractors, and attorneys in the office and in the field, often under difficult circumstances, to obtain compliance with the city's sign regulations and related codes. Requires experience in technical trades, municipal planning, real estate or building inspections. APPLY BY November 13, 2018.”

Each Monday, the city posts jobs available for current employees to consider. Here's the link to the most recent job opportunities.

