Drowning at North Valley Hotel

(May 6, 2023) A drowning at a local hotel pool leaves a young child dead.

On May 6, 2023, around 12:00 p.m., Phoenix police officers responded to a drowning call located at a hotel near the intersection of 19th Avenue and Happy Valley Road. When officers arrived, the Phoenix Fire Department was already on scene and had begun to treat a young child who was found unresponsive in the hotel pool. The child was transported to a local hospital where he was pronounced deceased.

Detectives responded to investigate the incident. What led up to the drowning is part of an ongoing investigation.
