Traffic Fatality in East Phoenix

(January 11, 2024): Phoenix police investigating a fatal collision that occurred yesterday evening that left a woman dead and a man in the hospital.

Officers responded to a serious vehicle collision just north of 44th Street and Osborn Road. When officers arrived, they found a man and a woman lying on the roadway. There was also a white SUV stopped nearby. The fire department responded and provided medical aid to both the man and the woman. They were both transported to the hospital with life-threatening injuries. The woman later died from her injuries at the hospital while the man continues to recover.

Detectives responded to investigate the collision and learned both the man and the woman were crossing 44th Street when they were struck by the SUV as it was heading southbound on 44th Street. The driver of the SUV was evaluated and showed no signs of impairment. The investigation remains active as investigators continue to process the evidence.
