Central Phoenix Collision Leaves Pedestrian Dead

(January 2, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a collision involving a pedestrian that left one man dead.

On January 2, 2024, around 3:30 p.m., officers responded to the intersection of Central Avenue and Willetta Street regarding a collision that involved a pedestrian. When officers arrived, they located the adult male pedestrian with serious injuries. The man was transported to a local hospital but was pronounced deceased after he did not survive his injuries. The vehicle involved in the collision remained on scene.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that vehicle involved was northbound on Central Avenue when it struck the man as he crossed Central Avenue at approximately Willetta Street. Impairment is not believed to be a factor in the collision. Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
