Interim Chief Michael Sullivan Availability

UPDATE: August 3, 2023

In addition to the mid-year crime stats, Interim Chief Sullivan will be addressing questions about the current status of the DOJ investigation. For details related to that status, a comprehensive story and related video is available on our PHX Newsroom.

DATE: August 4, 2023
TIME: Limited availability, approximately 1:15 p.m. until 3:00 p.m.
EVENT: One-on-One interviews at 10-minute increments
LOCATION: Phoenix Police Headquarters, 620 West Washington Street

Later today, the Phoenix Police Department will be releasing a video to the public giving a brief update regarding the ongoing Department of Justice pattern-or-practice investigation.

On Friday, August 4, 2023, Interim Police Chief Michael Sullivan will be available for one-on-one style interviews during the above allotted time to address questions about the status of the DOJ investigation along with the recently released mid-year crime stats. A comprehensive story about the mid-year crime stats is available on our PHX Newsroom.

Chief Sullivan's time is very limited. To allow for media outlets to have access to Chief Sullivan, time slots are limited to 10 minutes including setup. They will be given out on a first come first served basis.

If you are interested in an interview, please contact Sergeant Rob Scherer (Robert.scherer@phoenix.gov) to be given a time frame.
