Early Morning Brawl Sends Four Men to the Hospital

(September 4, 2024): A man is facing multiple felony charges as he injures three men during a fight involving seven individuals.

Officers were called to a stabbing just north of Central Avenue and Roosevelt Street early Tuesday morning. When officers arrived, they were informed by witnesses a fight broke out next to the roadway involving multiple males. Officers also learned some of the men were armed with knives and glass bottles. Officers located four men suffering from non-life-threatening cuts and were taken to the hospital for treatment.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. After reviewing evidence and speaking to everyone involved, detectives determined one of the injured men, 23-year-old Terrell Nozie, had attacked three of the victims which erupted into the large fight. Preliminary information suggests there was a previous disagreement between Nozie and the other males, at a nearby convenience store which reignited at the location of the fight.

Nozie was booked on four counts of Aggravated Assault. The investigation remains active.
