North Phoenix Shooting Leaves a Man Dead

(May 21, 2024): Detectives are looking for man involved in a homicide at a North Phoenix motel.

Just before 7:15 pm, officers received a shooting call at a motel near 28th Avenue and Sweetwater Avenue. When they arrived, they found a man suffering from a gunshot wound. Officers provided aid to the man until the fire department arrived. The victim, 38-year old Remember Remember, was rushed to the hospital where he later died from his injuries.

Detectives were called to investigate the shooting. After their preliminary investigation, detectives learned the suspect was in a verbal argument with a woman when Remember intervened. The suspect pulled out a gun and shot Remember, just before leaving the scene.

Currently, the suspect remains outstanding. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call Phoenix police or Silent Witness, if they wish to remain anonymous.
