North Phoenix Stabbing Leaves One Man Dead

(October 8, 2024): One man is stabbed to death and one man is arrested for his murder.

On October 7, 2024, around 11:00 p.m., officers responded to 2400 East Union Hills Drive for an injured person. Upon arrival, officers located the 54-year-old victim suffering from an apparent stab wound. The Fire Department transported the victim to the hospital, where he was pronounced deceased. The responding officers located a male, later identified as Matthew Ryan Fain, near the area who matched the suspect description. The male was detained without incident.

Homicide investigators responded and processed the crime scene, collected evidence and conducted interviews to include one with the suspect. The suspect Matthew Rain was booked into the Maricopa County Jail on one count of 1st degree murder. Additional details related to this incident remain part of the ongoing investigation.
