Early Morning Collision Leaves a Man Dead

(November 3, 2024): Phoenix police are investigating a fatal collision that left one man dead.

Officers were called to a vehicle collision just before midnight in the area of 79th Avenue and McDowell Road. When officers arrived, they found a man with obvious signs of injuries. The fire department responded and transported the man to the hospital where he died from his injuries. The vehicle and driver involved in the collision remained on scene. The driver showed no signs of impairment.

Detectives responded to investigate the collision. Preliminary information indicates the man was crossing McDowell Road, not in a cross walk, and was struck by the vehicle who was heading westbound on McDowell Road. Detectives were informed the man may have been struck by other vehicles after the initial impact, however, detectives await the findings of the medical exam.

The investigation remains active as detectives continue to process the evidence. A charging decision will be made once the investigation is complete.
