Hit and Run Collision Leaves Pedestrian Dead

On March 2, 2024, around 10:00 p.m., officers responded to the area of 23rd Avenue and Thunderbird Road regarding a collision involving a pedestrian. When officers arrived, they located the adult female pedestrian identified as 47-year-old Amy Smith. Smith did not survive her injuries and was pronounced deceased on scene. The vehicle involved in the collision took off from the area just after the collision.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests the vehicle involved was westbound on Thunderbird Road when it struck Smith who was in the roadway at the time. The vehicle continued west leaving the area. Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
