Motorcycle Rider Dies After North Side Collision

(May 15, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a collision that left a motorcycle rider dead.

On May 14, 2024, around 8:40 p.m., officers responded to the area of 43rd Avenue and Happy Valley Road regarding a collision involving a motorcycle. When officers arrived, they located the adult male motorcycle rider, identified as 22-year-old Chase Nunez, with serious injuries. Fire personnel attempted life saving measures, but Nunez did not survive his injuries and was pronounced deceased on scene. The other vehicle involved remained on scene.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that the vehicle involved in the collision was eastbound on Happy Valley Road making a left turn at 43rd Avenue when it was struck by the motorcycle driven by Nunez which was westbound on Happy Valley Road. Speed is possibly a factor in this collision. Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation. Charging decisions on this collision will be made after the accident reconstruction process is complete.
