Motorcycle Rider Dies After West Valley Collision

(May 8, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a collision that left a motorcycle rider dead.

On May 7, 2024, around 7:20 p.m., officers responded to the area of 91st Avenue and Osborn Road regarding a collision involving a motorcycle. When officers arrived, they located the adult male motorcycle rider identified as 21-year-old Pablo Villa Jr. Life Saving measures were attempted on Villa Jr by the Phoenix Fire Department, but Villa Jr did not survive his injuries and he was pronounced deceased on scene. The other vehicle involved remained on scene after the collision.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that the vehicle involved in the collision was southbound on 91st Avenue making a left turn at Osborn Road when it was struck by the motorcycle driven by Villa Jr which was northbound on 91st Avenue. Speed appears to be a factor in this collision. Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
