Fatal Motorcycle Crash

(February 28, 2024) Phoenix Vehicle Crimes Detectives investigate a fatal motorcycle crash that happened near 31st Avenue and Camelback Road Tuesday night.

Police officers were called to the area of 3100 West Camelback Road on February 27, 2024, to investigate a serious collision involving a single motorcycle. While on scene, officers located 18-year-old Carrigan Jones suffering from critical injuries. Phoenix fire responded and pronounced Jones deceased on scene.

Detectives responded and learned Jones was driving west on Camelback Road when he lost control and crashed into a light pole. Speed is believed to be a factor in this fatal collision. Further details of this incident are still under investigation.
